

CACB

CSCC

Professional Development Program

To ensure that qualified professionals directing clinical biochemistry laboratories have adequate basic and current knowledge to function competently in their jobs.

To evaluate and recognize self-directed learning based on self-determined needs, interests, and learning preferences.

This certificate is presented to who has fulfilled the requirements of the 1-year Professional Development Program of the Canadian Academy of Clinical Biochemistry and the Canadian Society of Clinical Chemists for the period

Ihssan Bouhtiauy, Chair, PD Program

Isolde Seiden Long, Chair, CACB

Paul Yip, President, CSCC